

Staying Safe Online

At Zaytouna Primary School we are dedicated to keeping our children safe online at school. It's important to us that we extend this online safety at home.

PEGI RATINGS

Ratings are applied to all games online.

When buying new games or accessing games, films and TV online, it's important to consider the age rating applied.

Where we see this marking it means this game is to be used with Parental Guidance.

Games with this rating

Parent Responsibility

- The PEGI rating helps you decide which video games to choose for your children.
- The PEGI rating tells us their suggestion of the minimum age to play the game.
- As parents you can control what games your children access and how long they access them for through the parental controls.

As a school

- Every year group has a minimum of one lesson a half term on online safety.
- i-vengers - we have a group of children and adults who work in school to promote online safety, through workshops, assemblies and lessons.
