Day 7 - tuck shop

What better way to end this Bank Holiday than with another post about food.

Our Wednesday tuck shop is incredibly popular with children and staff. As such, we're going to increase the items on sale and increase the days that it's available.

For Autumn 1, we're going to trial the tuck shop on a Monday and a Wednesday.

Watch this space for further details about the items that we'll be selling...yum!

Have a wonderful evening!
